INSTRUCTIONS AND DIRECTIVES FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL
IN PREPARING THE JOINT FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY, CAMDEN VICINAGE

1. ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY

When a discovery deadline is set forth in a Scheduling Order or Discovery Order, it is the clear order of the court that all discovery is to be completed within the given time period. Interrogatories and requests to produce should not be served so as to require the answering party to complete them outside the discovery period. Any applications for an extension of the discovery period shall be made prior to the expiration of the discovery deadline and shall initially be made to the court via letter request, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 37.1.

2. EXPERT WITNESSES

In any case where a party intends to present expert testimony, the Scheduling Order will set forth dates by which each party must submit the information required by Rule 26(a)(2), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Any applications for an extension of the expert report deadlines shall be made prior to the expiration of the deadline and shall initially be made to the court via letter request, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 37.1.

Any expert for whom such information is not provided in accordance with the Scheduling Order shall not be permitted to testify at the time of trial.

The Scheduling Order will set forth deadlines by which expert depositions may be conducted, in accordance with Rule 26(b)(4), if the parties choose to take such depositions.

3. JOINT FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER

The Joint Final Pretrial Order must be signed by all counsel and submitted to the United States Magistrate Judge in accordance with the directives in the Scheduling Order. Attorneys who submit a proposed Joint Final Pretrial Order to the court that indicates they have not followed the form and instructions that are provided herewith greatly impede the processing of litigation in this court and create burdens for the court and its staff which are unnecessary. A persistent pattern of conduct in this regard by any attorney will result in the imposition of sanctions.

The Joint Final Pretrial Order is the most important order that is submitted to the court prior to trial. A form of the Joint Final Pretrial Order, with more specific instructions, is attached hereto. It shall be signed by all counsel and shall reflect the effort of all counsel. It is the document that members of the court use for immediate reference to determine the nature of your case.

The form given to counsel should be appropriately enlarged in cases where there are multiple parties. In such cases, for purposes of clarity, wherever the form calls for facts, arguments, witnesses, or other evidence as to "plaintiff" or "defendant," counsel should delineate the required information for each party or third-party, being certain to give the name of the party for whom the information is provided. The form is a guide. It is to be retyped and not used as a "fill in the blanks" form.

It is hoped that counsel will meet to complete the Joint Final Pretrial Order. In any event, plaintiff's counsel should complete plaintiff's portion of the Order sufficiently in advance of the due date for the entire Order so as to give each defense attorney at least four full working days to complete the defense portion of the Order.

When the Joint Final Pretrial Order is completed, it should be returned to plaintiff's counsel who shall be charged with delivering the original and two copies of the Order to the court, with sufficient copies for all counsel.

The Joint Final Pretrial Order shall designate the assigned District Judge in the caption and shall be submitted on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Upon completion, it shall be mailed or hand delivered to:

[Hon. Robert B. Kugler] or [Hon. Joel B. Rosen]
United States Magistrate Judge
Mitchell H. Cohen U.S. Courthouse
One Gerry Plaza
Fourth and Cooper Streets
Camden, NJ 08101

In the event the Joint Final Pretrial Order is to be delivered to the court at the Final Pretrial Conference, the Order will be reviewed by the Magistrate Judge at the conference and entered upon the record. Another purpose of the Final Pretrial Conference is to attempt to settle the action. For that reason, at that conference, each party must be represented by an attorney who is vested with full settlement authority. Clients are to be either present or on call so that any settlement proposals made at the conference can be immediately conveyed.

Sanctions may be imposed for the unexcused failure of counsel to cooperate in submitting the Joint Final Pretrial Order when due, or for failing to obey a Scheduling Order or Discovery Order. See Rules 16(f) and 37(b)(2) and (g), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Once the Joint Final Pretrial Order is entered upon the record, it shall only be modified in exceptional circumstances "to prevent manifest injustice." Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(e). All requests to amend the Joint Final Pretrial Order shall be made by formal motion.

4. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

The date of the Final Pretrial Conference will be set forth in the Scheduling Order and shall be held in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(d). If a summary judgment or other dispositive motion is pending before the District Judge at the time of the Final Pretrial Conference, the conference may be postponed until such time as the motion is resolved. In such circumstances, counsel shall inform the Magistrate Judge of such pending motion in advance of the scheduled Final Pretrial Conference date.

5. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

Settlement conferences will be held prior to the submission of the Joint Final Pretrial Order upon the request of any counsel or upon Order of the court.

6. TRIAL DATE and PRETRIAL SUBMISSIONS TO THE COURT

The trial date set forth by the court is firm. Any application concerning the trial date should be directed to the District Judge assigned to the action.

Counsel are advised that the failure to submit trial briefs, voir dire questions, and requests to charge or proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law when required is a serious matter which will be dealt with by the District Judge.
